

Field Programme

2nd International Environmental Education Conference IEEC2018 30th May - 1st June

Eszterházy Károly University, Eger

Conference website: <http://ieec2018.uni-eszterhazy.hu/index.php?d=1>

Related fieldwork, 30th or 31th May

20:00: (Optional): Visit to the Western Gate Visitor Center - Open air school

Conference short trip to one of the Educational Center of Bükk National Park Directorate

1. Participatin in night-time stargazing, and guided walk in the forest involving a group of children .
2. Study visit to the Nyugati Kapu Visitor Center of the Bükk National Park Directorate
Study description:

13: 00-13: 20: Lecture - forest school programme in Felsőtárkány

13: 30-13: 40 Questions and Answers

14: 00-14-45: Biological and chemical water quality monitoring of a source nearby, involving a group of children (observation of methods and techniques)

14: 45-15: 00: Discussion, involving environmental educators

Subsection: To raise awareness of the problem of light pollution and to present possible solutions in environmental education.

You can find information about the University and Eger here: <http://eger.hu/?lang=2>

About the Faculty of Natural Sciences and education programmes you can find information here: <https://uni-eszterhazy.hu/en>

Contact person :

Erika Péntzesné Kónya PhD, associate professor

email: konya.erika@uni-eszterhazy.hu

If you write, please write in the topic: IEEC2018

Organising Committee:

Programme chair: Dr. Erika Péntzesné Kónya PhD, dean of Natural Sciences (Department of Botany and Ecology), associate university professor

János Mika Professor, DSc, Head of Department of Environmental Science, Eszterházy Károly University

György Dudás, Vice Director of Bükk National Park Directory

Zoltán Murányi PhD,

Director of the Center of Pedagogy, Eszterházy Károly University

Judit Ütőné Visi PhD,

Professional Leader, Office of Educational Authority

Attila Varga PhD,

Hungarian Institute of Educational Research and Development

HUNGARIAN INSTITUTE FOR EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

